

September 2011

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: William Krum Jr. - Baum's Music Company, Owner

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Mary Marshall - Buffet Crampon USA, Marketing Coordinator

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Jimmy Olivas - Capshaw Olivas , Representative

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: David Mester - Conn-Selmer, Inc., Trade Show Coord.

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Steven G. Trull - DeMoulinBothers, Inc., V.P. Marketing & Sales

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: W. F. Chambers - Duke City Chorus/NM Youth Harmony Camp, Secretary

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music
Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: DeDe Guth - Eastman Strings, Inc./Eastman Winds, Show Coordinator

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Kaelynn Miller - Eastman Strings, Inc./Eastman Winds, Edu.
Programming Coord.

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music
Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Dustin Seifert - ENMU - School of Music, Department Chair

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Mike Lee - Express Industriew, Fund Raising Consultant

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Darrell Blanchard - Fruhauf Uniforms, Nat'l Sales Mgr.

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Bonnie Thompson - G. Leblanc Corp., Administrative Assistant

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Paige E. Dufour - Gemstone Musical Instruments, Sales & Mkt. Coord.

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Mary Rima - Getzen Company, Inc., Executive Assistant

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Harold Stone - Getzen Company, Inc., Representative

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Carol Steele - Glencoe McGraw-Hill, Representative

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Walter Cummings - Grand Mesa Music Publishers, President

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Mickey Patten - Grandma's Music, President

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Mike Anderson - Indeco Sales, Inc., Contracts Division

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Ben Bruno - Jupiter Band Instruments, Inc., Marketing

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Mary Green - J.W. Pepper, Vice President

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Jessie Cloan - Kaleidoscope Adventues, Administrative Assistant

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Sara McDonald - Macmillan McGraw Hill, Conference/Exhibitor Coord.

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Jim Kunitz - Maestro Music, Inc., President

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Mary Ann Stewart - Music in Motion, Inc., Representative

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Joe Keith - Music Mart, Inc., President

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Myles Feltenberger - Myles Music Corporation, President

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: David Paul, - Neil A. Kjos Music Co., Representative

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Wendy Franchell - New Mexico 44th Army Band, Bandmaster

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Edward Harrington - New Mexico Highlands University, Director of Music

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Dr. Ken Van Winkle - NMSU Music Department, Chair

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Cora Pattersen - Patterson Horn Works, Owner

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: David Sanchez - Pearson Silver Burdett, NM Representative

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Carlos Baca - QSP/Reader's Digest, Field Sales Mgr.

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Chuck Riden - RCI Software/Riden Consulting, President

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Dennis Klophaus - School Sales Manager, School Sales Manager

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Marie Robertson - Robertson & Sons Violin Shop, Vice President

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Janet Harmon - Second Wind , Owner

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Michael Brownstein - SMB Fundraising, Owner

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: SSgt. Robert Storm - U. S. Marine Corps, MPAR

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Nancy Hutchinson - U.S. Army Recruiting Battalion, Director of Advertising

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Dr. Steve Block - UNM Department of Music, Chairman

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Bill McMillan - UTEP Department of Music, Representative

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: David McGuiggan - The University of Arizona School of Music, Office Specialist

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music
Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Beth Staser - Wenger Corp., Convention Supervisor

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Mike White - White's Music Box, Owner

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Adria Lewis - Yamaha Corporation of America, ICS/MIE Department

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music
Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Annie Hayes - Young Women In Harmony/Sweet Adelines, Coordinator Region 21

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music
Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

August 2011

To: Jim Edgeington - Zia Graphics, Owner

Re: The 68th New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference - January 4 - 5, 2012

From: Don Gerheart, Executive Director, NMMEA

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) and the University of New Mexico Department of Music will host the 68th Annual All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference in Albuquerque on January 4-7, 2012.

On behalf of NMMEA I would like to invite you and your firm to exhibit with us at our annual conference. The exhibits will be located in the Student Union Ballroom (SUB) C or in the open area outside the ballrooms depending on the number of booths reserved. Please indicate on the application your choice of booth location for Ballroom C and for the Foyer. The location we use will be based on the number of booths requested. The SUB will be secured when we conclude Wednesday evening and will be opened Thursday about 7:15 AM. A security guard will be on duty all night in the Exhibit Area.

We expect that this event will attract 400 public school music teachers from New Mexico. The Music Festival and In-Service Conference includes three All-State Bands, two All-State Choirs, an All-State Guitar Ensemble, and two All-State Orchestras as well as selected Honor Performing Groups.

Featured clinicians present over 30 sessions that deal with teaching school music at all levels K-12. Workshops include general elementary music methods and techniques, secondary vocal and instrumental methods and techniques, materials, music, equipment, folk music, and jazz.

Over 1,500 students, music teachers, parents, administrators, and exhibitors attended our 2011 New Mexico All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. With your participation our 2012 exhibits will be a most successful event.

Additional information can be found in the enclosed Exhibitor's Information Packet. The exhibits will be open on Wednesday evening, January 4, 2012 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM and from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5, 2012. On Thursday our music educators will have two blocks of time of at least 30 minutes to visit the exhibits. The exhibits will close at 5:00 PM on Thursday, January 5th. Arrangements will be made for unloading, loading at the Student Union with complimentary VIP parking provided in the parking structure.

We hope you and your firm will consider being a part of NMMEA's annual conference. Please call me at (505) 672-9840 for further information or if you have questions. You can also email me at dgerheart@nmmea.com.

