

New Mexico Music Educators Association New & Emerging Music Educator of the Year Award

Purpose of the Award:

The New Mexico Music Educators Association believes it is important to recognize individuals who are new to the profession of music education, who have demonstrated significant success in their early years of teaching, and who are likely to make significant contributions to the field of Music Education in the Schools of New Mexico. An award of this nature brings recognition to those who are new to the profession, and will encourage others who are new to music education to strive for similarly high goals.

Required Criteria and Guidelines for Nominating Candidates:

- Must be a current member of NMMEA.
- Nomination consists of a resume of the individual's achievements and status as a music educator in New Mexico schools.
- Must have demonstrated outstanding relationship with students, fellow music educators, administrators, and community.
- Must have demonstrated a consistent record of high standards of teaching and promoting music education in New Mexico schools.
- Must be teaching music in a New Mexico school at the time of the nomination, and at the time the award is to be received.
- Must have no more than five years of teaching experience.

Resume and Nomination Packet Must Include:

- Number of years of service to music education;
- Evidence of quality of teaching, reflected by testimonials by peers, students, parents and/or administrators;
- Stated goals and objectives for continued participation as a professional music educator.
- Identified service to NMMEA through active participation at the local district and state organizational level;
- List of honors and/or awards received;
- Exactly three (3) letters of support from students, parents, teachers or administration familiar with the nominee's work;
- Accurate and current contact information including address, phone numbers, and email address for both home and work;
- Picture for publication;
- New and Emerging Educator of The Year application.

Procedures for Nomination of New & Emerging Music Educator of the Year:

- District NMMEA organizations at a regular meeting of its membership may nominate any NMMEA member who is currently teaching music for consideration of the award.
- Each District NMMEA President will appoint a three member committee from that District's membership to forward the proper resume form to the candidates, screen completed resumes, letters of support, and recommend that district's nominations.
- Upon the determination of the candidate for the "New and Emerging Music Educator of the Year" award, the district selection committee will prepare and forward six (6) copies of the resume, six (6) copies of letters of recommendation, one photo of the nominee, and one (1) copy of the names and addresses of local newspapers and other media for publication purposes to the immediate Past President no later than July 1, each year. All materials should be assembled in three-ring binders, no larger than ½" thick, or in "flexible binders" only.
- The NMMEA Past President and chairman of the selection committee will send a copy of the candidate's resume and nomination to members of the state level committee.
- A standing committee for final selection will be composed of the five NMMEA vice-presidents and the immediate NMMEA Past President, who will serve as selection committee chairman. The committee will make the final selection and announce the name of the recipient to the NMMEA Board of Directors at its summer meeting.
- The State Selection Committee will select one recipient per calendar year for this award.

The Award:

- A plaque engraved with the name of the award, year, and name of recipient.
- Publication of recipient's picture and appropriate recognition will be made in the fall issue of the NEW MEXICO MUSICIAN.
- Public recognition will be made by presenting the award to the recipient at the annual All-State general membership meeting. Lunch for the recipient and spouse will be at NMMEA expense.
- Publication of the recipient's name will be included in the official All-State Music Festival and In service Conference program for at least ten years.
