

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE
NEW MEXICO MUSIC EDUCATORS ASSOCIATION
A NON-PROFIT CORPORATION
ADOPTED AT THE ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING OF
BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND INCORPORATORS

ARTICLE I
NAME AND LOCATION

SECTION 1. The name of this corporation is New Mexico Music Educators Association, Incorporated, a Non-Profit Corporation.

SECTION 2. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at 4540 Giddeon Truesdell, Silver City, NM 88061.

SECTION 3. The registered agent in charge of said office shall be Neil Swapp, and the agent upon whom process against the Corporation may be served is Neil Swapp, 4540 Giddeon Truesdell, Silver City, NM 88061.

ARTICLE II
CLASSIFICATION OF MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Membership: The members of the Corporation shall consist of those persons who are members in good standing of the New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA), on January 12, 1979, and whose dues have been paid; and who shall hereafter join this association, and receive a membership certificate or card.

Active Membership: Active membership shall be open to all persons engaged in music teaching or other music education work. Payment of the prescribed dues entitles one to all the privileges of active membership in the National Association for Music Education (NAFME) and the New Mexico Music Educators Association including voting and holding office, admission to meetings upon member's compliance with registration requirements. Membership includes subscription to "Music Educators Journal", the "New Mexico Musician", and all bulletins.

Active Research Membership: Active Research Membership includes all the rights and privileges of active membership and, in addition, provides for an annual subscription to the NAFME "Journal of Research in Music Education".

Collegiate Chapter NAFME Membership: NAFME Collegiate Chapter Membership (CNAFME) shall be open to students of music education at the college level who are not employed full time as teachers. Annual dues for student NAFME membership shall be set by NAFME, plus any dues established by the local student chapter. CNAFME membership entitles the member to all privileges except that of voting and holding office in the Corporation.

Honorary Membership: Upon the recommendations of the Executive Committee, Honorary Membership may be conferred in recognition of distinctive service to music education. Honorary members will be exempt from any dues in the Corporation. Such membership does not carry the privilege of voting or holding office.

Life Membership: Life Membership shall be open to individuals who are eligible for active membership, and should contribute an amount established by NAFME to an endowment fund for the National Association for Music Education. Life members shall have all the privileges of active members without paying further dues.

Retired Membership: Retired membership shall be open to former professional music educators who have retired from teaching, administrative, or research positions in music education. Annual national dues shall be set by the NAFME National Executive Board to which shall be added the amount of retired membership dues, if any, of the Federated State Association to which the member belongs. The full amount of the national dues collected shall be for the retired members annual subscription to the "Music Educators Journal". Annual national dues for retired members, who wish to receive the "Journal of Research in Music Education", as well as the "Music Educators Journal", shall pay an amount set by the NAFME National Executive Board. Retired members shall have all the privileges of active members.

Sustaining and Music Industry Council Membership: Any individual form or institution desiring to contribute to the support of, or to take part in the music activities of the Association, may become a sustaining member upon the payment of prescribed dues, and have all the rights and privileges of active members except that of voting and holding office. The dues for Sustaining and Music Industry Council membership shall be set by the NMMEA Executive Committee.

Dues: Dues for various membership categories will be established by the Board of Directors, based upon the NAFME dues structure. Any increase in State dues shall be voted by the membership.

ARTICLE III MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The annual business meeting of the Corporation shall be held during the New Mexico Music Educators In-Service Meeting.

SECTION 2. Board of Directors Meetings: There shall be at least two meetings of the NMMEA Board of Directors annually: The first to be held between July 1 and October 1; the second in conjunction with the All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference. Special meetings may be called at the discretion of the President upon the approval of a majority of the Board of Directors; or upon written request of a majority of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings of the membership other than those regulated by statute may be called at any time by the President or by a majority of the Board of Directors, and must be called by the President, or the Executive Director upon written request of one-third (1/3) of the members of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4. Notice of Special Meetings: Notice of special meetings stating the time, place and purpose thereof shall be served personally, or mailed to each member residing within the State of New Mexico, not less than five (5) nor more than forty (40) days before such meetings. If notice is mailed, such notice shall be directed to each member in good standing at his address as shown by the records of the Corporation, unless he shall have filed a change of address with the Executive Director of the Corporation.

SECTION 5: Quorum: At any meeting of the members of the Corporation, the presence of one-tenth (1/10) of the members, in person, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for all purposes, and an act of the majority of members present at any meeting in which there is a quorum shall be the act of the full membership. With the absence of the quorum, or when a quorum is present, a meeting may be adjourned from time to time by a vote of a majority of the members present without notice other than by announcement and without further notice to absent members. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present, any business may be transacted in the meeting as originally notified.

SECTION 6: Voting: At every meeting of members, each member shall be entitled to vote in person on each and every matter of business coming before the meeting. Members of the Corporation shall be entitled to one vote, which shall be orally unless one-third (1/3) thereof demands a written ballot. Upon such demand and vote, all voting thereafter on any question shall be by written ballot unless waived. All elections shall be had and all questions decided by majority vote of persons present. No voting by proxy shall be allowed.

SECTION 7: Voting by Mail: Where officers are to be elected by members, such elections may be conducted by mail in such manner as determined the NMMEA Board of Directors.

Section 8. Salaried Employees: Salaried employees do not have a vote during the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors Meetings. They are allowed to participate in discussions taking place during those meetings.

ARTICLE IV

The Nominating Committee will make every attempt to have two candidates on the ballot for each office. If this is not possible the Board of Directors may approve having only one name on the ballot for any office.

C. Nominations for the President's office must come from the membership of the present or past Executive Committee.

D. Any officer may be nominated for re-election for a succeeding term. Officers other than the President may be nominated from the general membership.

E. The Nominating Committee will make its report at the business meeting of the general membership during the annual New Mexico Music Educators Association All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference meeting. Following the report of the Nominating Committee, the NMMEA President shall call for nominations from the floor for the several offices. Nominees must have given consent for their names to be placed on the ballot, are qualified for the office, and are prepared to serve, if elected.

SECTION 2. Voting for Officers: Election of officers shall be by a mail ballot or by a secure electronic voting program. Ballots shall be prepared and mailed to dues paid members. Election shall be by a majority count of the ballots returned. Marked ballots/electronic voting shall be returned to the election chairman not later than fifteen (15) days after the voting period is open. The election chairman will appoint two other persons to serve with him as a canvassing committee. Such committee will file a fully signed and certified report with the Executive Director of the Association for publication in the NEW MEXICO MUSICIAN.

SECTION 3. Installation of Officers: The newly elected officers shall take office immediately following the close of the NMMEA All-State Music Festival and In-Service Conference for that year, which will be the odd numbered year.

SECTION 4. Vacancies in Office: Vacancies in any NMMEA State Office are to be filled by the Executive Committee upon the recommendation of the President.

ARTICLE VI ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECTION 1. The order of business at all meetings of this Corporation, whether members, directors, or committees, shall be governed by the parliamentary rules laid down in "Roberts Rules of Order", latest revision.
